Moses Crossing the Red Sea - Exodus 12-14

Pharaoh sent for Moses and said to him, "Get out of here! You and the Israelites, leave my people!" So the Israelites left Egypt.

The Pharaoh and his officials soon changed their minds. They said, "What have we done? We've lost our slaves and all the work they used to do for us!" So all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen and troops chased the Israelites.

As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked back. There were the Egyptians marching after them! The Israelites were terrified. They said to Moses, "Why did you bring us to the desert to die? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die here in the desert!" Moses answered the people, "Don't be afraid. You will see how the Lord will save you today."

Then the Lord spoke to Moses, "Reach out your hand over the Red Sea to divide the water. Then the people can go through the sea on dry ground."

So Moses reached out his hand over the Red Sea. The Lord pushed the sea back with a strong east wind and the waters were divided. The people of Israel went through the sea on dry ground. There was a wall of water on their right side and on their left.

The Egyptians chased them. All Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea. Then the Lord spoke to Moses, "Reach out your hand over the sea. The waters will flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen." So Moses reached out his hand over the sea. The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen. It covered the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the people of Israel into the sea. Not one of the Egyptians was left.

That day the Lord saved Israel from the power of Egypt. The Israelites saw the amazing power the Lord showed against the Egyptians. So the Israelites had great respect for the Lord and put their trust in him. They also put their trust in his servant Moses.
