

Fun with Family & Friends

Here's a fun activity you can do with an adult this week - Trust Fall. Be sure to do this activity with an adult!

Find an open space with a soft surface (such as grass, thick carpeting or a gym mat).

Both of you must stand facing the same direction with the adult behind you. When the adult is ready, you gently fall backwards. The adult must catch you as you fall.

After the game, discuss these questions over some snacks:

1. Is it scary to fall backwards?
2. Why is it important to do this activity with an adult whom you trust, and on soft ground?
3. Why can we trust God?

Think About This

God has the power to overcome obstacles!

What are some obstacles that I need God's help in overcoming?

What is God telling me to do about these obstacles?

Pray About This

Dear Jesus, thank you that you have the power to overcome obstacles! I commit all the things that I am worried or afraid of into your hands. I pray that you will help me overcome them. Please help me to keep on trusting you and following your instructions. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Do This

Solve this river crossing puzzle:

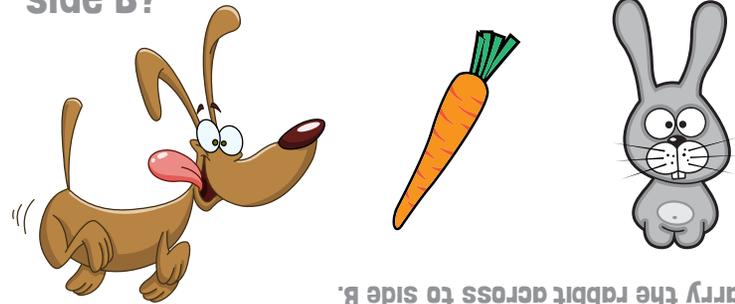

You brought your dog and rabbit to the market to buy a bag of carrots.

On your way home, you discover that the bridge across the river has collapsed. Without the bridge, you need to carry your dog, your rabbit and the bag of carrots across the river.

But you can only carry 1 thing at a time (either the dog, rabbit, or carrots).

And you cannot leave the rabbit alone with either the dog or the carrots.

How do you get the dog, rabbit, and carrots across the river from side A to side B?

- Solution
1. Carry the rabbit across and leave it at side B.
 2. Carry the dog across and leave it at side B. Then return to side A alone.
 3. Leave the rabbit at side A and carry the carrots across to side B. Then return to side A alone.
 4. Carry the rabbit across to side B.
